Mr. Chad Childers, Administrative Attorney
Office of the Chief Disciplinary Counsel
State Bar of Texas
P.O. Box 12487

Re: Complaint of Ty Odell Clevenger Dated August 15, 2013

Dear Mr. Childers:

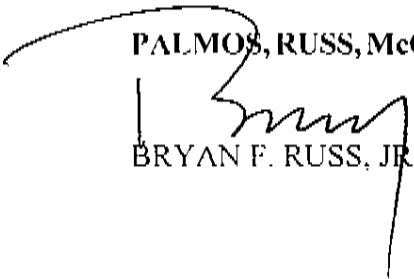

Please allow me to respond to Mr. Clevenger's most recent complaint against me. My representation of municipal clients does not involve the collection of taxes. This, notwithstanding, in each instance, my filing an answer is not necessarily adverse to my municipal clients. In each of the instances referred by Mr. Clevenger, my municipal clients did not object and the officials were aware of my involvement.

With respect to the criminal cases, my representation of my municipal clients includes prosecuting class c misdemeanors. I do not represent police officers and I don't represent the State of Texas. The criminal allegations are brought by the State of Texas and my municipal client, the city, is not a party.

I deny violating any rule of disciplinary conduct.

Very truly yours,

PALMOS, RUSS, McCULLOUGH & RUSS, L.L.P.
