Mr. Naron,

I normally work odd hours, but thank you for your concern. If the petition signatures have not been verified, why are you and Ms. Pecina trying to convince the council to put the issue on the ballot? And why was Sarah Griffin trying to do the same? (I've copied her on this email). It seems that you would first need to determine whether the recall is legally eligible for placement on the ballot.

Mr. Clevenger,

Working on a Saturday I see. Careful not to work yourself to hard as I am sure your family will miss your attentions. I obviously have the same problem as I am answering this on the weekend. To my knowledge there has been no attempt of verification. If you wish to view the petition I can have Linda send you a copy on Monday. If you want it sooner then ask any of your three clients or find the kbtx story online. They provided a PDF copy for review. As I mentioned before our lawyers gave a memo detailing the recall process. I have asked in the last council meeting to put the waiver of the attorney client privilege on the invoices and the memo. It is not our duty to verify the signatures as i clearly mentioned before. Take a breath Mr. Clevenger... enjoy your family... enjoy your weekend...

Best Regards,

John Naron

Mr. Naron and Ms. Pecina,

As permitted by the Texas Public Information Act, I request the opportunity to view all records, documents, and communications concerning the verification of signatures on the petition to recall Councilman Rodrick Jackson. If, for example, Ms. Pecina or any other person prepared a report or sent a communication regarding the number of valid signatures on the petitions, those documents should be produced for inspection.

My request for information includes, but is not limited to, reports, communications or documents indicating the following: (1) how the petition signatures were verified; (2) who verified the signatures; and (3) whether the signatures have or have not been verified. Any relevant communications with the county elections administrator should also be produced. Thank you in advance for your assistance.

Mr. Clevenger,

I believe I answered this question in my last email.

Subject: recall petition

Mr. Naron and Ms. Pecina,

I just spoke with the Robertson County Elections Administrator, and he told me that the recall petitions for Rodrick Jackson had not been submitted for verification, and he said his office would not certify the signatures without a contract because of the "current political climate" in the city. He said it would be up to the city secretary to verify the signatures.

I would like to know if Ms. Pecina verified the signatures and, if so, how many of the signatures were valid. I also would like to know how many valid signatures are required to place the issue on the ballot. Thank you.
