Re: Public corruption investigation in Robertson County, Texas

Senator Cornyn:

I have enclosed a letter that I sent to Robertson County District Attorney Coty Siegert on July 14, 2014, as well as two letters that I sent to various officials at the U.S. Department of Justice on July 8, 2014. The exhibits mentioned in the letter can be found on the website BoogerCountyMafia.com. Thus far, I have not received any response from the Justice Department.

About a month ago, I met with an FBI agent in Waco regarding the evidence of public corruption in Robertson County, and the agent said he was hoping to find a prosecutor who would take the case. For the reasons set forth in my letter (namely, the potential conflict of interest in the local U.S. Attorney's Office), I believe main Justice needs to take the lead.

Any assistance in this matter would be appreciated. Thank you in advance for your consideration.

Sincerely,
