The picture above shows the fence line of Sheriff's Sowell property. The tree circled is the one that the inmates were working on, on or about Wednesday October 8, 2014. This image was taken in September 2013 via Google. The picture was taken from the roadway FM 149 in front of the Sheriff's property.

The picture above starts a panoramic view showing the tree (circled) the inmates worked on as well as Sheriff Sowell's House on his property.

The picture above continues a panoramic view showing the tree (circled) the inmates worked on as well as Sheriff Sowell's House on his property. Also shown is a green highway sign that says Law Enforcement Center (with an arrow that points to the Law Enforcement Center)

The picture above continues a panoramic view showing FM 149. Also shown is a green highway sign that says Law Enforcement Center (with an arrow that points to the Law Enforcement Center)

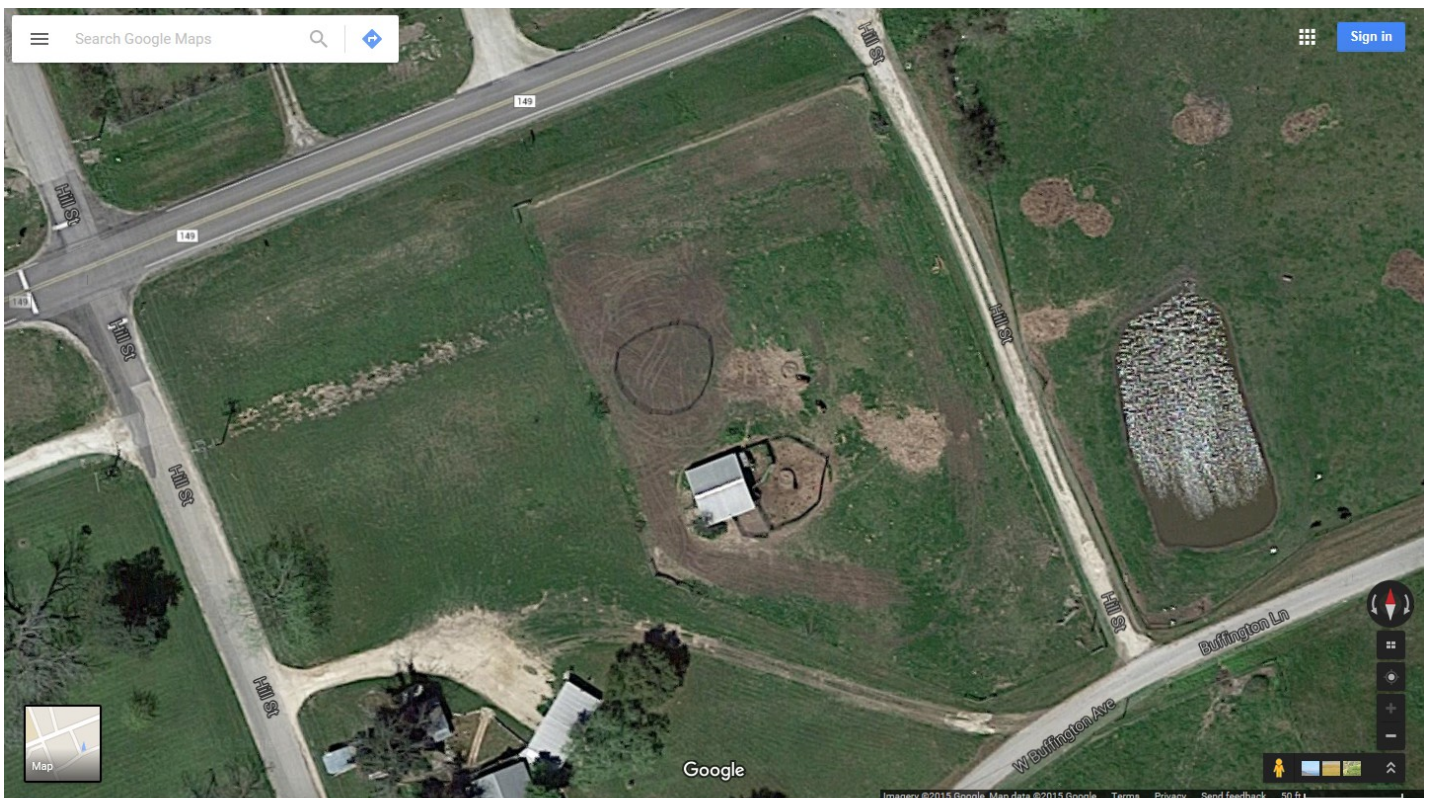

The picture above continues a panoramic view showing FM 149 and the Law Enforcement Center sign in the grass area off the roadway. The arrow points to the Grimes County Appraisal District.

The picture above is an even closer view of the tree on the property from another angle that also shows the Sheriff's house in the background.

The picture above is a photograph image in 2015 via Google maps. It shows an area shot of Sheriff Sowell's property with the tree removed.

The above photo (labeled 3.) is a zoomed in picture of the previous showing inmates still working on the Sheriff's property. They also have appeared to shift positions, indicating that they are in fact working on the downed tree.
