PLAINTIFF'S ORIGINAL PETITION

TO THE HONORABLE JUDGE OF SAID COURT:

NOW COMES Paul Kendall, Plaintiff, complaining of George Prentice, Defendant, and states the following:

I.

George Prentice, is an individual who may be served with citation at either his work address which is United States Bankruptcy Court, Western Division, San Antonio, Texas 615 East Houston street, Room No. 597, San Antonio, Texas 78205; or his Residence at 317 Lexington, Room No. 235, San Antonio, Texas 78215, Cell Phone No. (210) 957 9354

II.

Venue for this matter is proper in Bexar County, Texas under Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code Section 15.002(a)(3). Bexar County is the county wherein Defendant's tortious conduct and omissions have been committed.

FILED
DISTRICT CLERK
BEXAR CO. TEXAS

III.

Plaintiff intends to conduct discovery under Level 3 of the Texas Rules of Civil Procedure 190.4, due to the complexity of the subject matter.

IV.

Reference herein to Paul shall mean Paul Kendall, the Plaintiff.

Reference herein to Nissa, shall mean Nissa D. Kendall, wife of Paul.

Reference herein to George, shall mean George Prentice, the Defendant.

SUMMARY OF CONTROVERSY/ CAUSE OF ACTION

V.

- A. This is a story of a man struggling to save his marriage.
- B. George is the Senior Clerk for the United States Bankruptcy Court, Western Division, in San Antonio, Texas. The position occupied by George is of extreme importance within the United States Court System, San Antonio, Texas.
- C. Nissa works in the United States Bankruptcy Court, Western Division, in San Antonio, Texas and works directly under the supervision of George as his assistant in the United States Bankruptcy Court, Western Division, in San Antonio, Texas.
- D. Plaintiff will show that George has consistently interfered with the marital relationship between Paul and Nissa. Paul and Nissa are currently attending counseling to help their relationship of 9 years. George has been advised as to efforts by Paul and Nissa to save their marriage. Notwithstanding the foregoing, George has chosen to not back off and is continuing to make romantic overtures to Nissa.

CAUSE OF ACTION FOR INTENTIONAL INFLICTION OF EMOTIONAL DISTRESS

VI.

At all pertinent times George has repeatedly, intentionally and recklessly interfered with the marriage between Paul and Nissa refusing to heed the request of Paul to stay away from his wife, even after Nissa and Paul have started to participate in marital counseling.

VII.

The conduct of George has been extreme and outrageous in character and so extreme in degree, as to go beyond all possible bounds of decency as to be regarded as atrocious and utterly intolerable in a civilized community. In particular, the conduct was because George was outrageous aware of specific medical issues of Nissa which affected her mental ability to resist him.

VIII.

A. The conduct of George has proximately caused Paul to suffer emotional and mental distress. In particular George's conduct was a direct and proximate cause of severe mental pain and anguish. The emotional distress of Paul has been so severe that he is suffering from numerous, intense headaches; is unable to sleep at nights; has been unable to enjoy or digest his food to the extent of losing weight; and also has engaged the services of counseling and psychotherapy to assist him in dealing with overwhelming feelings of anxiety, nervousness and sorrow. Paul has endured difficulty in his business because the conduct of George has interfered with the decision making process in his business. Economic damages caused by George are within the jurisdictional limits of this Court.

B. Paul seeks a monetary award to compensate him for the mental anguish caused by George as well as the monetary expenses incurred in the business of Paul because of the actions and omissions of George as alleged herein.

C. Paul seeks an award of exemplary damages from George. The basis for exemplary damages is that the conduct is consistent with what is required to be shown per Chapter 41 of the Texas Civil Practice and Remedies Code. Paul will be seeking attorneys fees and other litigation cost as part of an award for exemplary damages.

IX.

This situation, while not a perfect fit in terms of applying case law, is analogous to numerous cases, cited repeated for ongoing harassment of an employee by one in a position of authority. The difference here is that the person suffering from the harassment of a person in authority is the husband of the employee. See GTE Southwest, Inc v. Bruce, 998 S.W.2d 605,613-617 (Tex. 1999); see also Clayton v. Wisener, 190 S. W.3d 685,692-694(Tex. App-Tyler 2005,pet.denied)-doctor's persistent sexual propositions and vulgarities directed at employee hired to collect bills for doctor were legally and factually sufficient as basis for finding of extreme and outrageous conduct necessary to support claim for intentional infliction of emotional distress.

REQUEST FOR INJUNCTIVE RELIEF

X.

Paul Kendall asserts that he will be incurring irreparable harm for which he has no adequate remedy at law if George continues to persist in his romantic overtures with Nissa D. Kendall. Paul request court intervention as follows: that during work time at the office of the clerk at the United States Bankruptcy Court, Western Division, San Antonio, Texas, that George Prentice and Nissa D. Kendall only have interaction between them which is strictly work related; that outside usual and customary work hours, George and Nissa D. Kendall have no contact whatsoever by any means of contact electronically or any other means.

Paul will provide a cash deposit as required by the Texas Rule of Civil Procedure.

Paul will request a hearing within 14 days of filing this lawsuit in order to determine if the Temporary Restraining Order being granted should be converted into a Temporary Injunctive Order

PRAYER

For these reasons, Paul Kendall asks that the Court issue a citation for George Prentice to appear and answer, and that Paul Kendall be awarded a judgment against George Prentice for the following:

- a. Actual damages, including direct and consequential damages
- b. Exemplary damages
- c. Prejudgment interest and post judgment interest
- d. Court cost

e. All other relief to which Paul Kendall are entitled

Respectfully submitted,

TEMPORARY RESTRAINING ORDER

CAME ON TO BE HEARD ON THIS DAY, the Application by Paul Kendall for Injunctive Relief.

Paul Kendall is requesting an immediate Temporary Restraining Order so that he may have so that tortuous conduct by the Defendant which is interfering with his marriage can be brought to an immediate halt. After Defendant is served with this Restraining Order it is very likely, if not under Court Order, he will maximize additional conduct with Nissa Kendall and further maximize harm to the mental health of well-being of Paul Kendall.

Paul Kendall asserts that he will be incurring irreparable harm for which he has no adequate remedy at law if George Prentice continues to persist in his romantic overtures with Nissa D. Kendall. It is therefore ordered that George Prentice during work time at the office of the clerk at the United States Bankruptcy Court, Western Division, San Antonio, Texas, only have interaction between George Prentice and Nissa D. Kendall which is strictly work related; that outside usual and customary work hours, George Prentice and Nissa D. Kendall have no contact whatsoever by any means of contact electronically or any other means.

01/11/2012 10:00 AM

The Court finds that a hearing shall be held on 1/19/2012 date in order to determine if the requested temporary restraining order shall be converted into a temporary injunction pending the outcome of this lawsuit.

The Court finds that Paul Kendall is to pay cash bond of $100<sup>00</sup>.

SIGNED ON THIS 10th DAY OF Jan., 2012.
