Re: Freedom of Information Act Request

To Whom It May Concern:

In a December 6, 2019 order from the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court, Judge James E. Boasberg indicated that approximately 16,000 U.S. citizens were improperly surveilled under the guise of Section 702 of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act. See December 6, 2019 Order, https://www.intelligence.gov/assets/documents/702%20Documents/decclassified/2019_702_Cert_FISC_Opinion_06Dec19_OCR.pdf. According to the order, government officials unlawfully searched data intercepts for information about the 16,000 or so U.S. citizens.

On behalf of The Transparency Project, and as authorized by the Freedom of Information Act, I write to request all documents, records and other tangible evidence reflecting improper surveillance of the individuals described above. This request includes, but is not limited to, records reflecting the names and addresses of each such individual, the dates of each improper data search or surveillance, and the search terms employed. This request further includes, but is not limited to, records identifying (1) each and every person involved in improper searches / surveillance of each of the roughly 16,000 individuals, and (2) the public or private entities who employed the persons conducting the searches or surveillance.

On behalf of The Transparency Project, I further request the opportunity to view all documents, records, and other tangible evidence reflecting whether information from the searches / surveillance of the foregoing 16,000 individuals was shared with any persons or entities outside of the FBI, CIA, NSA or ODNI. If, for example, the search results were shared with private contractors, members of Congress, or foreign governments, then records reflecting that should be produced.

Thank you in advance for your assistance.

Sincerely,
